

1 six months thereafter. I would like to inquire if the 2 Committee would feel the problem would be solved if the 3 sentence were, a non-judiciary member may not hold any 4 office of profit or office of a political party while a
5 member of a commission, and strike the rest of the sentence
6 and substitute the language, substitute after and, and 7 shall hold no judicial office for six months thereafter.
8 My point yesterday was it would be very hard to get any-
9 body on this commission for six months after resigning
10 cannot be appointed by the Governor for an office, or 11 couldn't run for an office. I just don't know who would 12 do that, but I presume that the point is, we don't want 13 them nominating themselves.

14 MR. MARTINEAU: There is one other aspect to 15 it. First of all, let me say this prohibition is included 16 in the Constitution of other States, that of this type of 17 commission, and I have heard of no difficulty of getting 18 people to serve on these commissions. As a matter of 19 fact, most of them have a longer prohibition after they 20 resign as a member of the commission. But secondly, in 21 addition to your problem of resigning and then being
