

1 Court and each judge of the Appellate Court shall be sub-
2 ject to approval or rejection by the electorate throughout 3 the State. Each judge of the Superior Court and of the 4 District Court shall be subject to approval or rejection
5 by the electorate of the county or district in which he 6 was required to reside when appointed. Provision shall 7 be made by Rule for the taking of a poll of the lawyers
8 in the area in which the judge is required to stand for 9 election as to whether he should be retained in office for 10 a full or additional term and for publication of the 11 results thereof. In the event of the rejection of any 12 judge by the electorate, the office shall be vacant.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Martineau, is the reference
14 to Rule in the next to the last sentence intended as in 15 the previous Section to mean a Rule not subject to change
16 by the Legislature?

17 MR. MARTINEAU: That is correct.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Then, I would assume that you
19 would consider any possible necessary modification in 20 line with Mr. Case's suggestion?
