

1 practices law. Suppose he comes from Baltimore County, is 2 appointed in Baltimore City, and then runs for election.

3 MR. MARTINEAU: This would have to be redrafted.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: You indicated, did you not,
5 that after appointment under your other provision, he 6 would have to reside in the county so that when he comes 7 up for election he would be residing in the county?

8 MR. MARTINEAU: This is where he is required to 9 reside when he is appointed, so we would have to make 10 an adjustment.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Della?

12 MR. DELLA: I don't read it in this Section, 13 but it is a possible chance I am not reading between the 14 lines as such. The way this Section is written now, this 15 will not prevent another lawyer from running against the 16 incumbent judge at the time he comes up for election.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, it would. Any further dis-18 cussion?

19 MR. MARTINEAU: I^{will} just run down the States that 20 have the non-competitive election feature in this list
21 so that you can see what the terms are. Alaska is 10,
