

1 floor of the Convention. What it is worth and I am not 2 speaking in favor of the motion, what I am saying is that 3 when this Report is written, I think this thing ought to be 4 discussed and shown and fully discussed with the idea the 5 Commission looked at it thoroughly and rejected it.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: The workbook and Report will 7 unquestionably discuss this fully and will in reduced form
8 state the views of all of those who have a period before
9 the various Committees that advocated the competitive elec-
10 tion. The only question on the motion is whether an 11 alternate draft should be included. If the motion fails, 12 the work will --

13 GOVERNOR LANE: I feel that nothing as an 14 alternate should be put in our Report because I have com-
15 plete confidence that this question is going to be 16 thoroughly discussed by the Convention. It is not our 17 authority. If I didn't have the confidence it is going 18 to be causatively discussed, then I would take a position.
19 I think the fact we have adopted what we have is sufficient
20 to indicate the attitude of this Commission which is only 21 in recommendation. I think at this point the lengthy dis-
