

1 cussion about the Niles Plan is going to be discussed and 2 everybody will have a chance to discuss it. We are un-
3 intentionally regulating the other portions.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Ready for the question? The 5 question arises on the motion to prepare and include in 6 the Report an alternate provision providing for competi-
7 tive election. All those in favor of the motion, signify
8 by saying Aye. Contrary, No. The Noes have it. Any fur-
9 ther discussion on Section 10?

10 DR. BURDETTE: I share immensely Dr. Bard's
11 point that a poll of lawyers as lawyers is unfortunate
12 in public relations. I think I sense in the State a great 13 deal of sentiment that the Niles Plan is a plan for lawyers
14 by lawyers anyhow, and even if that is wrong and that 15 isn't true, a lot of people just don't think so.

16 Why pick out the lawyers? I would pick out the 17 newspapers.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Martineau, you want to com-
19 ment?

20 MR. MARTINEAU: First of all, if you are talk-21 ing about newspapers, editors and their opinion will be
