

1 about the fact that maybe there is some unionism among 2 judges, and it is very hard for four people to resist the 3 importuning of a former member of the fraternity who 4 wants to get back on the Bench to the position of power
5 and good feeling that it gives him. I think that the 6 position of the State Bar Association on this provisional
7 matter is one that should be given very great considera-
8 tion, and it is that position which I am urging here.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Burdette?

10 DR. BURDETTE: I fear Mr. Sykes has interpreted 11 Section 11, the power is exclusively in the chief justice
12 subject to the approval of the majority. The majority 13 could not override the chief justice or even make any 14 suggestion.

15 MR. SYKES: I agree.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Ready for the question. The 17 question arises on the motion to amend Section 11 to 18 insert the word, appellate, before judges in the next to 19 last line so that the last sentence would read, the chief
20 justice of the Supreme Court with the approval of a 21 majority of the Members of that Court may authorize
