

1 THE CHAIRMAN: What is the language then,
2 Every person shall have the right to worship or not to wor-
3 ship?

4 DR. BARD: I just want to state very strongly that 5 I favor an affirmative way of making this clear, Every 6 man shall have the right, not, No person shall be res-
7 tricted. I think there is a major difference.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion? Are 9 you ready for the question? The question arises on amend-
10 ing the Committee draft to delete the first clause read-11 ing, No person shall be restricted in the free exercise of 12 religious profession and worship, and substituting there-
13 for the clause, Every person shall have the right to wor-14 ship or not to worship as he thinks most acceptable. Those 15 in favor of the amendment, signify by saying Aye. Con-
16 trary, No.

17 The Ayes have it, and it is so ordered. The 18 Committee draft/<sup>is</sup> now amended. The Committee draft as 19 amended reads, No law shall be enacted respecting the 20 establishment of religion. Every person shall have the 21 right to worship or not to worship as he thinks most
