

1 acceptable, and no person shall be disqualified from hold-
2 ing public office or rendered incompetent as a witness or
3 juror because of his opinion on matters of religious
4 belief.

5 The question now arises on which of the two
6 versions shall be approved. A vote Aye is a vote approv-
7 ing the revised version which are the first four para-
8 graphs at the top of Page 4 opposite which the numerals 36
9 appear. A vote No is a vote in favor of the Committee ver-
10 sion as just amended. The bottom paragraph on Page 4
11 opposite the language, Proposed by Committee. You ready
12 for the question? All those in favor of the revised
13 version that appears at the top of Page 4, signify by a
14 show of hands. Contrary?

15 THE CHAIRMAN: The motion is lost, 10 to 13.

16 DR. BURDETTE: Which came out?

17 THE CHAIRMAN: The amended Committee version is 18 the official, the other is the alternate.

19 DR. BURDETTE: This is all very confusing.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: The net result of the three
21 votes is that with the two amendments made by the Commission