

1 upon the third sentence, in that under the third sentence
2 there has to be a vote of the people who would be moved.
3 Under the fourth sentence, these people would not have a
4 vote independentl. the statewide referendum.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further comment? Anything
6 further, Mr. Clagett?

7 MR. CLAGETT: No, Mr. Chairman, except to repeat 8 that by the reason just having been pointed out, there is 9 a difference between the referendum provided for in the 10 two sections, that we would prefer to hold on to the present
11 section being voted upon rather than to eliminate it.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Miller?

13 MR. MILLER: Has the motion been seconded?

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, it has been. Is there any 15 further discussion? The question arises on the motion to 16 delete completely the last sentence of Paragraph (b),
17 which sentence has now been amended to read, If the General
18 Assembly wishes to change the lines of more than three 19 contiguous counties, and so forth. Are you ready for the 20 question? All those in favor signify by saying aye. Con-
21 trary, no. The no's seem to have it. The no's have it.
