

1 to local solution and it is felt by the Committee that here
2 we have provided a means of action by the General Assembly,
3 but only after there has been a reasonable time within 4 which the local units could solve the problems for them-
5 selves, and here we see a provision where, as the problems
6 become great enough to require the attention and action of 7 reactivated local subdivisions, provision is here for them
8 to, as contained and provided specifically in the next
9 subsection, to agree and solve those problems.

10 Now, that could mean the agreement to create a 11 regional form of government. It also is one where the 12 General Assembly could move in and use this provision to 13 take care of what would otherwise be the problems and the 14 ever increasing problems of metropolitan growth and 15 development.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Sykes?

17 MR. SYKES: Does this Section contemplate that 18 there would be a trial that would last three or four or 19 five weeks, with a battle of experts and give employment 20 to all the experts and professors here to determine whether 21 in fact some kind of problem that is dealt with by the
