

1 by, and are not soluble through interlocal cooperation.

2 MR. SAYRE: That's gone.

3 DR. BARD: That's gone? Would you accept that
4 amendment?

5 MR. SAYRE: That includes, which transcends
6 local boundaries?

7 DR. BARD: Yes, and keeps going until you get
8 to, which transcends local boundaries, period.

9 MR. SAYRE: If I understand it right, the amend-
10 ment would be, to administer single- or multiple-purpose
11 services which transcend local boundaries, is that correct?

12 DR. BARD: On its own initiative or on the re-
13 quest of one or more --

14 MR. SAYRE: I would leave that out entirely be-
15 cause that's meaningless.

16 DR. BARD: Leave that out then and run to ad-
17 minister.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: I think he has indicated he would
19 accept that. Would you accept that, Mr. Sykes?

20 MR. SYKES: Yes, sir.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: All right, the motion is to amend
