2 MR. CLAGETT: When they change the law, the
3 advisability of it, as it would affect such a question or 4 situation.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further questions? Mr. Miller?

6 MR. MILLER: I don't quite understand Mr.
7 Clagett's answer. As I gather -- the question was what
8 would happen if a subdivision contracted with some foreign
9 interest and it was legal at the time, but it was something
10 the Legislature didn't want. Would it be binding? Wasn't
11 that the purport -- it might be, it seems to me --

12 MR. CLAGETT: I think I can answer it more
13 specifically. If the General Assembly acted by general
14 law, the general law would then prevail.

15 MRS. BOTHE: In spite of any contractual arrange-
16 ments made by the subdivisions?

17 MR. CLAGETT: It would have to.

18 MR. MILLER: If it's a contract, wouldn't it be 19 legal when it was made?

20 THE CHAIRMAN: I take it, what Mr. Clagett is 21 saying is that just as the Legislature could by general
