

1 Reports and the draft of the Constitution and the draft
2 of the Report by having simply the regular Commission
3 meetings in November and December. We will probably, 4 therefore, have to work out some procedure under which the 5 draft of the Report can be circulated to the Commission
6 Members, and perhaps have some special sessions to con-
7 sider only the language of the Report itself. We are 8 not attempting to complete the work book by January. I
9 think that would be utterly impossible. John and I
10 have interviewed some people that we think have the pro-
11 fessional qualifications to assist in the editorial
12 phase of the work. It is a problem of whether we can 13 get sufficient funds, and whether these people can get 14 sufficient leave of absence to assist us. We hope to be 15 able to work this out inside the next week or ten days.

16 In the meantime, I would greatly appreciate
17 if all the Members of the Commission between now and our 18 next meeting, which as you know, is Monday and Tuesday 19 the week after next, that is, the 24th and 25th, be 20 giving some thought to the problem of the circulation of 21 the Report and agreement on it. I don't think there is
