

1 well nigh impossible to keep the Report down to 150
2 pages, and my guess is that, as of now, that the Report
3 will be probably twice that long.

4 This, too, poses a problem, because if you
5 get the Reports too long, then it becomes necessary to 6 prepare a summary of the Report for distribution, and 7 this is still another problem. I would hope that the 8 Report could be kept to a maximum of 200 pages, but in 9 view of the fact that it is our function to state both 10 sides of the question, it seems to me this is going to be 11 exceedingly difficult to do.

12 One of the practical problems, and this, too, 13 is something you can be thinking about that will have 14 to be resolved, is whether this Report should include a 15 reprint of the existing Constitution. Now, as you know, 16 in fine print, and without annotations, the existing 17 Constitution, including the Amendments that are on the 18 ballot in November, is roughly 100 pages, 98, I think;
19 and I would hope our Report is not in type that small,
20 so that this one item alone, you see, could add consider-21 able bulk to the Report, and it is a decision that the
