

1 session tomorrow evening, and there will be a session
2 Sunday morning, and we will try to adjourn promptly at
3 12 noon on Sunday.

4 DR. JENKINS: Beginning at what time Sunday
5 morning?

6 THE CHAIRMAN: I would like to begin at 8:30
7 on each of them, but I am afraid that that is too early,
8 because so many are coming in. Is there any reason we
9 cannot begin both Saturday and Sunday sessions at 9?

10 DR. JENKINS: Schedule them at 8:30 a.m. and 11 begin at 9.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: We have been pretty fortunate
13 in the scheduling of our meetings, at all except the 14 first day. We have started within a few minutes. I
15 would rather schedule it for a time and ask people to be 16 there. Is there any objection to having Saturday's and 17 Sunday's meetings at 9 o'clock? All right. That is what 18 we will do. Any further question?

19 MR. CASE: I have this question, Mr. Chairman,
20 which is really not a question. It is more a statement.
21 I am disturbed about the agenda, although I am fully
