

1 THE CHAIRMAN: I think probably we can take
2 them up one at a time initially, don't you, Mr. Case?

3 MR. CASE: It makes no difference to me.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any comment, then,
5 or question on Subsection 1? If not, proceed to Subsec-
6 tion 2.

7 MR. CASE: Subsection 2 says, On the third
8 Wednesday in January in each year (except in the case of 9 a newly-elected Governor, and then not later than ten 10 days after the convening of the General Assembly), unless 11 such time be extended by the General Assembly, the 12 Governor shall submit to the General Assembly a budget
13 for the next ensuing fiscal year.

14 This is the same as the current provision, 15 which was an amendment effected only two years ago to 16 dovetail the introduction of the budget to the General
17 Assembly, in conformity with the requirement for 70-day
18 sessions.

19 Such budget shall contain a complete and 20 balanced plan, by programs, of proposed expenditures and 21 shall also contain estimated revenues for said fiscal
