

1 thoroughly brainwashed at that time.

2 MR. SCANLAN: Based on your experience in 3 fiscal affairs in this State and based further on your 4 experiences in financing education and especially based 5 on the work you have done in the work with your Committee
6 and an excellent work it is, too, is it not your 7 opinion that the retention of this language as you have 8 it, slightly different, I concede that, the language, 9 for State support of the local system, is merely just 10 to preserve a symbol and nothing that really has any 11 great efficacy?

12 MR. CASE: Well, that is a hard question to 13 answer. I think that it does preserve a symbol. I
14 will start with that. There is no question about it.
15 This is a great symbol to the public school people, so
16 you have to look at it from the other side. Is there 17 any great damage done to the budgetary system of the 18 State? Is the financial position of the State unduly 19 wounded by reason of the contingency? The reason has to 20 be No.

21 MR. SCANLAN: If we are going to clutter up
