

1 if that type prohibition is desired.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Further discussion? Mr. Gentry?

3 MR. GENTRY: Speaking against the motion, I
4 would fear that to insert the word, public, would give 5 some opportunity for those that argue, if the day comes 6 that aid to private schools would be permissible and would 7 be desirable, it would give some support to the fact that 8 that is disfavored by this Constitution, by reason of the 9 fact that the limitation here would be to private schools
10 and give the Governor only his limited powers in that area, 11 but would allow him further powers with regard to 12 appropriations for private school benefit.

13 I feel as it now stands without any word in 14 there, it would allow an interpretation to be given to 15 this, in the event that at some future time where it is 16 not permitted now, in the event that time should come, it
17 would be permissible and therefore since it does no
18 harm to leave it as is, I would feel it should be left
19 open in this fashion.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Further debate, Mr. Clagett?

21 MR. CLAGETT: What is the difference between
