

1 because it dovetails. It does mean public.

2 All right. Now, getting back to this sentence,
3 because there is one innovation in it, one innovation of 4 substance and one of language. The one of substance is 5 to be found in the (a) on Page 23. In the present Consti-
6 tution, there is no provision which would deny to the 7 Legislature the right to amend the revenue estimates
8 which are made by the Governor, and when Mr. Sachs and I
9 mentioned this fact to Mr. Rennie and Mr. Slicher, they 10 were horrified to know that the General Assembly could 11 indeed, if they took it upon themselves, perhaps could,
12 amend the estimate of revenues. This is a very important
13 thing, because if you can amend the revenue estimates, 14 if you could possibly amend them upward, then you could 15 get in programs that the Governor desired, never envisioned, 16 perhaps, and there is no telling what kind of chaos would 17 come out of it, so we are proposing that the Governor, 18 who has the responsibility of revising the budget and the 19 responsibility of finding money to fund that budget, for 20 sure has the responsibility of determining the revenue 21 estimates, and we think that his estimate of revenues should