

1 be inviolate and that is the reason for (a).

2 MR. SCANLAN: I have a question on that. Do
3 any other States have in their Constitutions a prohibition
4 on the right of the representatives of the people to raise
5 the revenue estimates of the co-equal branch of the 6 Government, namely the Executive?

7 MR. CASE: To do --

8 MR. SCANLAN: Does any other State --

9 MR. CASE: -- have a similar provision?

10 MR. SCANLAN: Or similar restriction.

11 MR. CASE: I would guess they do.

12 MR. SCANLAN: It strikes me as highly unusual.
13 The Governor can be wrong and the Legislature could be 14 right.

15 MR. CASE: But it is the responsibility of the 16 Governor, and this is the cardinal issue, the responsibility
17 of the Governor to do it, right or wrong.

18 MR. SCANLAN: I guess we are getting into 19 argument.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Sykes?

21 MR. SYKES: Is the word, a-f-f-e-c-t, in that connection possibly broader than the Committee
