

1 was perfectly appropriate for the things that it covered
2 in the existing Constitution, is too broad and may have
3 unintended consequences as to this new matter, and the
4 change that we are effecting should be limited to changes
5 directly in the estimate of revenue.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Case?

7 MR. CASE: We have no objection to that.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Mindel?

9 MR. MINDEL: Does the estimate of revenues appear
10 only in the budget and not the budget bill?

11 MR. CASE: Budget.

12 MR. MINDEL: In that case, I would like to
13 make a motion.

14 MR. CASE: It could appear in the budget bill,
15 but as a practical matter it never has.

16 MR. MINDEL: The General Assembly shall not
17 amend the budget so as to alter or change the estimate of
18 revenues therein contained or amend the budget bill so
19 as to affect (b) and (c) that we had there.

20 MR. CASE: May I speak to that?

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Sykes, do you accept the
