

1 now that the budget for the Judicial Department is not
2 to be revised by the Governor and that the budget as
3 submitted by the Judicial Department cannot be changed
4 by the Legislature and then can't be vetoed by the Governor.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: That is not correct.

6 MR. CASE: Mandated items, only mandated items.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: They can be increased.

8 MR. SYKES: I am talking about the Judiciary.

9 MR. CASE: Yes, which have mandated items,
10 cannot be reduced. They can be increased.

11 MR. SYKES: Yes. Well, maybe I didn't get it.
12 There are parts of the Judiciary budget that are subject
13 to revision by the Legislature? Is that the intention?

14 THE CHAIRMAN: By the Governor and the Legis-
15 lature.

16 MR. CASE: That is right.

17 MR. SYKES: I missed that. Then the only man-
18 dated items are judges' salaries and that is all.

19 MR. CASE: Yes.

20 MR. SYKES: If that is the case --

21 MR. CASE: Or any other mandated item that the
