

1 MR. SYKES: Yes.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Do you want to say anything
3 about it?

4 MR. SYKES: No, sir.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Miller?

6 MR. MILLER: Mr. Chairman, I don't want to 7 prolong this. It is not going to wreck the State one
8 way or another, but I think the Members of the Commission,
9 I would like them to bear in mind the fact that such pro-
10 visions as this could cause great embarrassment to the 11 executives. I had the privilege in the past of sitting 12 a great many years on the Federal Appropriation Committee, 13 and if for political reasons somebody wants to make the 14 Governor unhappy, they could call in somebody who has been 15 overruled by the Bureau of the Budget and say, General
16 So-and-So, or Judge So-and-So, would you have done this.
17 Oh, no, he says, and it is a way of opening up a lot of 18 political fraud which probably doesn't do the public any 19 good.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Case, do you want to make 21 any further comment?
