

1 bills. Bear in mind that before lunch we were talking
2 about amendments or additions that the Governor might 3 make, and we said that we would talk about what happens
4 to them if they are tacked onto the budget bill, and then
5 the budget bill becomes law by operation of, or by reason 6 of inaction by the Constitution. We said that those 7 supplemental, or those amendments would then become sup-
8 plemental appropriation bills, and they would be controlled
9 by Subsection 8. Now, Subsection 8 deals with another 10 type of supplemental appropriation bill, and really this, 11 what I have been talking about, is minor thrust of the 12 Section. The major thrust is the desire or need of the 13 State Government to appropriate additional funds after 14 the budget bill has become law.

15 Bear in mind, I have said earlier, that all of 16 the information that the Committee could get stated very 17 definitely that no money bills should pass until the budget
18 bill has gone through and become law, and this Section 8
19 continues that provision as the first statement and then 20 says, or provides for procedures allowing for supplemental 21 appropriation bills, either of the general kind, namely,
