

1 for new State programs, or for the exceptional case of 2 where a supplement has been offered by the Governor to 3 the budget bill, the bill has become law by inaction and 4 the supplement then is transferred to this Section for 5 its procedural life.

6 I will now read it. It is somewhat long:
7 Neither house shall consider other appropriations until 8 the budget bill has become law. That is what the present
9 Constitution says, and is the very important thing which 10 I emphasized a minute ago. It should be retained.

11 Any such appropriation shall be embodied in a 12 separate bill limited to some single work, object or 13 purpose as clearly defined therein, and such bill shall 14 be called a supplementary appropriation bill. That is 15 the existing law and present Subsection 8, which if you
16 are following it with your red book, is on Page 32.

17 Each supplementary appropriation bill, includ-
18 ing amendments or supplements to the budget bill which 19 have not become law, shall provide the revenue necessary
20 to pay the appropriation by a tax, direct or indirect, to 21 be levied and collected as shall be directed in said bill,
