

1 a supplemental appropriation because you don't supplement
2 anything. What you are talking about is the manner of 3 making an emergency appropriation, and what I think we 4 want to say is that the Legislature may consider an 5 emergency appropriation at an extraordinary session, and 6 it shall make it in the same manner as it makes the sup-
7 plemental appropriation, or handles the supplemental 8 appropriation bill in the regular session, but this raises
9 an additional question, which hasn't yet been discussed.
10 The extraordinary session can have before it a proposal
11 by the Governor for funding, or a proposal made by the 12 Legislature. The proposal made by the Governor is not 13 a budget, but the question would arise as to whether or 14 not the Legislature would have to dispose of the proposal
15 by the Governor before it could handle the thing by 16 itself, whether the same relationship should exist between 17 the Governor's proposal and the Legislature's proposals,
18 as exist between the budget and the supplemental appropria-
19 tion bill. It seems to me that that would have to be 20 thought through, but that what we are really talking about 21 is the manner of making an extraordinary appropriation,
