

1 Are you ready for the question? All those in favor, sig-
2 nify by a show of hands. Contrary? The motion is lost,
3 4 to 13.

4 MR. MILLER: Mr. Chairman, we have trouble
5 hearing down here. Would you read how it reads now,
6 please, sir?

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Section 9 now reads: The Gen-
8 eral Assembly may consider any supplementary appropriation
9 bill at any extraordinary session.

10 Section 10 -- there is no Section 10.

11 MR. CASE: It might stun everybody to realize
12 this. That is the Report.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further questions? Mr.
14 Sayre has a motion.

15 MR. SAYRE: Mr. Chairman, I have already talked
16 to the people. This is a simple motion. I move that 17 the Committee on State Finance and Taxation be requested
18 to submit a Report on the subject of dedicated or
19 earmarked taxes with appropriate constitutional language.
20 This motion is intended to apply to the future measures
21 having a taxing effect emanating from any budget bill,