

1 of the Declaration of Rights, which flow into the tax
2 area, such as the lottery, such as the special assess-
3 ment afforded to farm properties, such as the sites
4 of taxation, et cetera. That is in the Third Report yet
5 to come, and we have discovered, unfortunately and belated-6 ly, that there is a big gap in this whole program which 7 has been sort of the result of an Alphonse and Gaston
8 act between Judge Adkins' Committee and mine. This deals
9 with the question of an appropriate fiscal officer or agency
10 be designated in the Constitution to receive revenues.
11 We talked today about outgo, which is very important, but 12 we have not yet approached the problem of who gets the 13 money in the first place, and Judge Adkins and his 14 reporter and Mr. Sachs and I had dinner last night and 15 discussed this matter until a fairly late hour, and this 16 is going to have to be the subject, I am afraid, Mr. Chair-
17 man, of a Fourth Report, so the question is really one of 18 how much can you expect the poor girl to do?

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Clagett?

20 MR. CLAGETT: I am seconding Mr. Sayre's
21 motion, notwithstanding the protest that I am listening
