

1 to the effective date of the act.

2 MR. CLAGETT: Is this three-fifths instead
3 of two-thirds still open to a later decision by the 4 Commission?

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes. When we finish all the 6 sections, we are going to submit for consideration all
7 extraordinary votes at one time. Any further questions?

8 MRS. BOTHE: On reading this casually, I
9 get the impression in the first phrase that the petition
10 can't be filed until after the bill becomes lawed,
11 language 60 days from the day on which the bill becomes 12 law. I know that is not what the Committee meant.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: The sense is I take it before
14 the expiration of 60 days after date --

15 MR. GENTRY: That is correct.

16 MRS. BOTHE: I suggest the language be 17 changed.

18 MR. CASE: Is it clear that if -- this is 19 what I understand the Commission passed as a matter of 20 policy -- that if the law were passed by X per cent,
21 three-fifths, two-thirds, whatever it is, that a
