

1 from two of those counties, composing the three. No
2 objection to that. It would have to equal the five per 3 cent.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Further discussion?

5 MR. GENTRY: Section 10. Restrictions.

6 No plan for legislative reapportionment or congressional
7 redistricting, no law imposing a tax and no law making
8 an appropriation for maintaining the state government or 9 for aiding or maintaining any public institution shall
10 be subject to referendum.

11 Only change is as shown.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Any comment or question?

13 Mr. Sayre?

14 MR. SAYRE: Question. When we talk about
15 appropriation for maintaining the state government,
16 et cetera, does this mean that you could alter something
17 in this area other than appropriations? It seems to 18 me we ought to have more restrictions than this because 19 there is a standard prohibition pretty much against 20 changing the judiciary.

21 MR. GENTRY: There were two areas which it
