

1 were both handed to you in the envelope this morning.
2 Mr. Brooks says the bill was submitted to you this
3 morning, the report you had by mail.

4 (Discussion off the record.)

5 MR. SCANLAN: The reporter thought this
6 was to be taken up at a later date and I think that
7 explains his absence.

8 This is the Sixth Report of our Committee
9 on Convention Procedures. Basically it is a report
10 that urges the adoption of a proposed enabling act which
11 if it was passed by the General Assembly which convenes
12 next January, would form the statutory basis for the 13 Constitutional Convention itself.

14 As indicated in the first page of the report
15 itself, many of the matters, I would say the majority
16 of the matters of substance embraced in the proposed
17 bill have previously been considered by the Commission.
18 We believe that the Commission's action on those
19 previous reports have been reflected in the bill itself.
20 Hopefully that's so.

21 The first section of the bill, of course,
