

1 provisions of an act, you run a risk that you don't 2 include them all or that they don't exactly summarize 3 all the provisions of the act. In any act, especially 4 of this importance, there ought to be a general line
5 in the title which doesn't say that the act provides 6 for anything but says that the act relates to something.
7 I would suggest that this be amended to read an act
8 providing for all the specific things you want to provide 9 for and at the end you should add and relating 10 generally to a Constitutional Convention of this state.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Scanlan has noted it.
12 Any further questions as to the title?

13 MR. CASE: I have a fundamental question
14 about this bill. I don't know whether now is the 15 time to bring it up or not.

16 Everybody is so taken up with what the 17 Constitution ought to be, I wonder if we have lost
18 sight for a moment of what the Constitution is today.
19 I have some serious doubt as to whether this bill can 20 be an emergency bill. The Constitution says now that 21 no measure creating or abolishing an office or granting
