

1 is a pretty good reason in that context but this is 2 to be a non-partisan election. This is not a partisan
3 election. Legislative districts were put in to curtail
4 the power of political parties or political machines
5 in political elections. They have no necessary appli-
6 cability in this special type election which is to be 7 a non-partisan election. I just think it is more
8 difficult to draw a selective list of say 16 than it
9 is to come up, less difficult to draw a list of 16
10 when you can draw from a county as a whole than it is 11 to artificially chop it up seven, seven and two.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion?

13 MR. BROOKS: I think this is a real political 14 problem for this Commission and the Commission ought 15 to really, I think this is the ideal time to consider 16 what its hopes are in regard to a constitutional
17 convention. I would think it would be the Commission's 18 interest to already be considering those persons in the 19 various legislative districts and counties who might 20 make good delegates and already begin encouraging such 21 persons to consider running for delegates. We are talking
