

1 people who will not be informed, who will not vote
2 unless someone tells them to vote. I would like to 3 urge us not to even think in terms of districting
4 as it applies to Baltimore City.

5 MRS. BOTHE: Using your example, Mr. Eney,
6 I feel quite concerned about the countywide election
7 because if my understanding is correct, had you not had 8 districting in Baltimore County, you might not even 9 have any representation from the area in which you and 10 Mr. Case live in the General Assembly.

11 The Baltimore County powers that be, as I
12 understand them, are so divided that the districting is 13 what has preserved some decent representation in 14 Baltimore County in the General Assembly and I dare say
15 may do so also in the convention. Just, for example, I 16 don't want to make any particular comments about the 17 members of the General Assembly from your county, but 18 I don't think the representation is one which we would 19 like to see in the convention altogether.

20 On election day, for instance, a member of 21 the National States Rights Party presented me with their
