

1 DR. JENKINS: Mr. Chairman, I am sure we
2 all want a very high level constitutional convention.
3 But our concept of blue ribbon groups in our society is 4 changing a bit as all of you lawyers know. I am not 5 at all concerned about the lack of qualified people by 6 districts. Granted that in some districts we may find 7 a concentration, I hope we will not take the view that 8 qualified people cannot be found in other districts.

9 My concern is how are we going to circum-
10 vent the politicians used in a narrow sense, not that 11 people are not available in all of these districts.

12 MR. CASE: Mr. Chairman, I, like yourself,
13 have mixed emotions about this. I would like to 14 speak in support of -- before proposing a motion, 15 there is just no question about the fact that the 16 Chairman stated in Baltimore County, the larger pool of 17 qualified people are going to be drawn, can be drawn 18 from one district, and if the motion prevails, the 19 effect will be to exclude some or a great number of these 20 people from the Commission's deliberation. I think you
21 have to think in terms of what the Chairman of this
