

1 Committee said. Namely that what we are trying to do
2 here is to get the best possible people on a nonpolitical
3 basis and this can be done through such organizations
4 as the League of Women Voters, as various other groups,
5 do good groups, if you will, but still groups of this 6 kind.

7 As far as the politicians are concerned,
8 let me say this to you, Dr. Jenkins. Politicians are 9 not going to mount any great assault on a ticket which 10 is put together by these groups and has the unqualified 11 support of the press unless they get a great deal of 12 money to do it because politicians don't operate as 13 they do unless they have money to run their precincts
14 unless they have money to print ballots, money to get 15 their workers to the polls and so on.

16 DR. JENKINS: You are referring to politicians
17 in the narrow sense, not statesmen?

18 MR. CASE: I am thinking of the people you 19 talk of as politicians that get the vote out in 20 Baltimore County, for example, in the Twelfth and 21 Fifteenth Districts. I don't think people in the Twelfth
