

1 DR. JENKINS: If we could get the League of
2 Women Voters, as somebody said, God bless them, behind
3 some of these candidates and some other civil
4 organizations, it might serve to get better quality of 5 delegates than we would otherwise have.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion?

7 MR. HARGROVE: I don't know if it is
8 covered further in the bill, but is there any provision
9 for withdrawal of candidates? This might be a possibility,
10 you get a large number --

11 THE CHAIRMAN: That is a different subject.
12 Let's keep it to this one point at the moment, namely,
13 whether you should require a petition. Any further
14 discussion of that point?

15 MR. MARTINEAU: My only comment is if I
16 thought the petition would do any good, I would be in 17 favor of it but it seems inconceivable to me that
18 any figure we might write in for signatures couldn't
19 be gathered as easily by the crackpot as anybody else.
20 I don't think it would do any good.

21 MR. SAYRE: How do you feel on this, Mr.
