2 THE CHAIRMAN: I can't imagine that any 3 reasonable number of signatures you would require would 4 do a bit of good. If you make the number low enough
5 so that it is reasonable and feasible, I agree with 6 comments that almost anybody could get that number of 7 signatures. If you make it high enough to be meaning-
8 ful, I think you are just putting obstacles in the way
9 of other candidates.

10 MR. HARGROVE: I think in addition it would 11 be a litigation breeder which we all know petitions 12 have. I would think the elimination of any form of 13 petition would best serve the purpose of this act.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Miller, you did not 15 make a motion. In light of discussion, do you want 16 to?

17 MR. MILLER: I merely thought we ought 18 to think about it. I am not sure I am for it.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further comment with 20 respect to Section 3?

21 MRS. BOTHE: I would make a motion that the
