

1 make perhaps a more orderly election. It doesn't 2 appear to be here. I think perhaps it should.

3 MR. SCANLAN: On the question of withdrawal
4 later on, we provide for the applicability of the 5 election laws generally. I believe that certainly the 6 intention would be that the withdrawal situation would 7 be covered by the usual period of time applicable in a
8 regular election. I don't know --

9 MR. HARGROVE: I would think the election
10 laws, if you read the various election laws, it probably 11 could not do it unless you specifically state it.
12 I think each has periods of time, if we use these 13 dates, you are going to be in trouble.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Will the Committee take 15 it into consideration?

16 MR. SCANLAN: Yes.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further comment on 18 Section 3?

19 MR. MARTINEAU: One thing that I didn't 20 catch before, I am not sure whether I mentioned this 21 in the Committee or not. Section 3 requires apparently
