

1 political subdivisions, respectively. The names of all
2 candidates filing for election as delegates to the 3 Convention shall be typed on similarly prepared ballots
4 and during regular office hours on May 2, 1967, in 5 public, shall be drawn by lot by the chairman of each 6 Board of Election Supervisors, or his designee, one at 7 a time, and the names of these candidates shall be 8 arranged on the ballots or ballot labels in the 9 numerical order in which they are drawn by lot, as 10 aforesaid, without any party designation or other 11 description thereafter. Notwithstanding anything to the 12 contrary in any of the election laws of this State, 13 each Board of Supervisors of Elections shall have the 14 power for this special election and for the referendum 15 on the adoption of any new constitution, or on any 16 change or amendments to the existing Constitution, 17 provided for hereinbelow, to determine the number of 18 judges and clerks of the election necessary to conduct
19 the election and referendum in an efficient and orderly
20 manner, and likewise the power to determine the compensa-
21 tion paid at the November election, 1966.