

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Wouldn't it be simple enough
2 to specify a time?

3 MR. SCANLAN: Yes, would that satisfy,
4 Mr. Hargrove?

5 MR. HARGROVE: I think it would because 6 these election boys are wonderful.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: High noon is suggested.

8 MRS. BOTHE: I guess I have an interest
9 in this having gone from "L" to "B." There is some 10 disadvantage to the system because a number of voters 11 look on the machine for the name of those whom they 12 want to vote for alphabetically rather than by Line 1-G 13 or whatever other specifications. Where there are, if 14 there are a large number of contenders, I think it 15 will make it more difficult for a voter to find the 16 people he intends to vote for.

17 MR. SCANLAN: Just want to break them of 18 the bad habit of voting alphabetically.

19 MR. BOND: Somebody might die between the 20 time of filing and time of the drawing of lots. Second 21 it isn't the alphabet so important but top and bottom
