

1 a name, first one out of the hat is Line 1 and so on.
2 I don't think it will generate any confusion. In
3 Baltimore where the confusion might be the greatest we
4 have, the fact that it is divided into legislative
5 districts and perhaps you wouldn't have a great bulk
6 of candidates.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion?

8 MR. CLAGETT: Having been made aware of
9 the advantage of "C," I believe I am going to withdraw
10 from my position on the Committee and adopt another
11 one. Not to pun but being a "C" and seeing two "B's"
12 I think I will go along with them.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion?
14 Ready for the question? The question arises as to 15 whether or not we have to weight the votes of those 16 whose names are in the last half of the alphabet.

17 JUDGE ADKINS: Are we disqualified in the 18 first half?

19 MR. MARTINEAU: We ought to have a roll
20 call.

21 MR. CASE: I am definitely voting in favor
