

1 MR. CASE: Can somebody read it?

2 THE CHAIRMAN: The substance of it was that
3 Section 2 be rephrased to provide to be qualified a
4 man be a resident of the state, citizen of the state, 5 have been a resident of the state for three years and 6 be a resident of the district from which he is elected
7 for one year.

8 MR. CASE: But he could be all of those
9 things and still a man, for example, in Baltimore
10 County delegation could die and the Governor under this 11 could appoint somebody from Prince Georges County who 12 would have all those things and still fill the vacancy.
13 There is nothing in this that says he has to appoint
14 from the county where the dead man happened to represent.
15 I think this is a fatal weakness. I agree with 16 Dr. Burdette and I think it is also implicit in the 17 Governor's right to appoint as well as the Convention.
18 It ought to be made abundantly clear they have to pick 19 them from the same political subdivision the deceased
20 represented.

21 MR. SCANLAN: In view of the fact the
