

1 actually convenes, that political subdivision would
2 be unrepresented for that entire period.

3 DR. JENKINS: I realize there are certain
4 disadvantages here. I assume there would be very few 5 such vacancies. That the advantages it seems to me
6 would override the disadvantages of which you speak.

7 MR. CLAGETT: I have the same question that 8 Mr. Martineau raised and he pretty well covered it.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion?

10 MR. CASE: Dr. Jenkins, what would happen
11 under your proposal if all the delegates were going 12 down to Annapolis on Ritchie Highway by bus and all of 13 a sudden somebody dropped a bomb on them and killed
14 them all or two-thirds of them. There wouldn't be a 15 Convention, you couldn't get it going again.

16 MR. CLAGETT: Had they signed the affidavit.

17 JUDGE ADKINS: I have this question. In 18 practical fact how is a Convention going to choose a 19 delegate? Is it the presiding officer? Is it going 20 to be the remaining members of the delegation from the 21 area involved? I just don't conceive quite how a
