

1 because that would make it all the more appealable
2 or what have you, to continue for the full length of 3 time until January 12 whereas here by using four months
4 as an absolute, even though ultimately you might get 5 the same result, I think, there would be more incentive
6 to adjourn earlier if finished.

7 MR. SCANLAN: I am persuaded by Mr. Gentry's
8 remarks because there was considerable debate in the 9 Committee about whether it should be three or four 10 months and there was some feeling it should be three 11 with the right to extend itself a month if it wanted
12 to but finally we gave in and selected the four-month
13 period hoping that it would be less than that.

14 I would like to suggest that the word
15 calendar between the word four and months would accommo-
16 date Dr. Michener's suggestion.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: I would suggest to you that 18 creates confusion because strictly a calendar month
19 means a full calendar month of thirty days and that 20 might mean four full months in addition to part of the 21 month. You could do it by saying no longer than 120
