

1 you could get funds out of the State Treasury to pay
2 for the Convention except by means of a supplementary 3 appropriation bill. We do not anticipate there will 4 be any difficulty.

5 MR. CLAGETT: Does that one million dollars
6 include the $750,000?

7 THE CHAIRMAN: It does not. We told him
8 that is a separate problem. I cut you off before you
9 finished. You mean $750,000 cost of election?

10 MR. CLAGETT: I am aware you were aware of 11 what I was asking.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Unfortunately the record
13 won't show that. Any further questions on Section 9?
14 I had a question. Is it sufficiently clear, do you
15 think that the $50 per diem payment is to be not only 16 compensation but reimbursement for expenses? What 17 concerns me is whether there may be some general
18 provision of state law authorizing state employees or 19 officers to be reimbursed for out of pocket expenses, 20 travel or whatnot. I am not sure whether there is or 21 isn't such a law but if there were such a law, I would
