

1 compensation and reimbursement of expenses a per diem
2 payment of $50.

3 MR. SCANLAN: Fine. We will add that.

4 MR. MILLER: Mr. Chairman, would there
5 be any occasion for the Convention to send delegations
6 or Committees or something away from Annapolis on a
7 fact-finding job?

8 THE CHAIRMAN: I should think there could 9 be. If we do our work sufficiently well, it might not 10 be necessary, I don't know.

11 MR. MILLER: The thought I had is that 12 $50 for expenses and so on might not take extraordinary
13 expenses. If some members were sent to Chicago or 14 somewhere, it might cost $50 to go there.

15 MR. SCANLAN: Under the provision which 16 says the Convention may authorize such other 17 expenditures as seem to it desirable for its work would 18 cover the Convention authorizing travel expenses for a
19 select Committee if it had to go to Chicago as you
20 suggest. I think we only encumber it by trying to work
21 out any other language.
