

1 with respect to the amendment as we have it here for 2 his compensation and expenses would certainly take care
3 of that item and where he was authorized to go out to 4 Chicago on a special mission, it would be a Convention
5 expense.

6 MR. SCANLAN: That is right.

7 MR. CLAGETT: There would be no problem
8 taking care of it on that basis.

9 MR. HARGROVE: Did the Committee consider 10 that there might be some members of the Convention who 11 might have to spend a considerable amount of time, for 12 example, the President and the several other people
13 who are elected who might have to spend a tremendous 14 amount of time, I can think of the President being 15 involved almost ten or twelve or fourteen hours a day,
16 some additional compensation to them.

17 MR. SCANLAN: We didn't consider it. My 18 own personal reaction would be that would be the 19 price of glory and prestige.

20 MR. CLAGETT: As a matter of fact, we did
21 consider it along that line.
