

1 the laws of this state?

2 THE CHAIRMAN: No, I don't say that. I
3 said according to the Constitution of this state. I 4 think it would be better to stop simply with the 5 Constitutional Convention of 1967. Execute the 6 office of delegate to the Constitution Convention of 7 1967.

8 MR. SCANLAN: If we accept the Attorney
9 General's view that the Legislature under the present
10 Constitution has the inherent power to call this 11 Convention, then it is not inaccurate to say that he 12 will execute his office according to the Constitution
13 and laws of this state. I am afraid if you leave it
14 out, you betray a lack of confidence in the legality
15 of the Convention under the present Constitution.

16 MR. DELLA: The Constitution now in effect
17 will still stay in effect until the new Constitution
18 is evolved and adopted. So wouldn't this be appropriate 19 to have it in there?

20 THE CHAIRMAN: I didn't hear.

21 MR. DELLA: The Constitution would still be
