

1 amendment?

2 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Therefore I do not.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion?

4 MR. SAYRE: This bill itself, I think, will 5 be the key.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Hoff, do you want to 7 move an amendment to the motion?

8 MR. HOFF: No, I don't feel that strongly
9 about it.

10 MRS. BOTHE: Mr. Chairman, the office of 11 a delegate to the Convention is an office which falls
12 within the present Article 2, Section 6 of the present
13 Constitution, I suppose. It does set out an oath that 14 everyone elected or appointed to any office of profit or 15 trust under this Constitution or under the law shall 16 take. The oath is very similar to this one but it is 17 not the same. I suggest that by deleting this oath and 18 putting the delegates in the same position as all other 19 people elected to office under the law, we could simplify
20 and avoid any conflict.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Are you suggesting an amendment
